Dear Mr. Forrest:

I am writing regarding Contract #15 33 31 on which a bank draft was issued on June 1, 1966, in the amount of $90.50. I had written your company seven days after the first of June asking that this policy be canceled. I do not remember having authorized a bank draft, especially in view of the fact that this was a semi-annual premium.

I would please request your consideration of my letter of cancellation which came seven days after this bank draft was issued and request that you refund the amount of the semi-annual premium. I had no plans of continuing the contract, and was under the distinct impression that I would be notified regarding the semi-annual premium being due.

Please look into your records carefully as to whether I authorized such a draft. I am sure that your personal honor and the integrity of your company will not allow you to keep this amount when you do not find, according to my understanding, an authorization for this bank draft, and when you consider what were my intentions for several days prior to June 1, even though my letter of request for cancellation did not come until after June 1.

Your consideration of this request will be deeply appreciated. I will look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Contract # 15 33 31

Dear Mr. Chalk:

We have received your recent correspondence informing us of your desire to discontinue the coverage of the above Contract. This letter is, therefore, to notify you that your Contract will be terminated as of the date which premiums are now paid, and will not be in force at the expiration of the grace period. As your Contract has not been in force for a sufficient length of time to accumulate a cash value, there is no surrender value at this time.

Should you decide to apply for reinstatement any time within the next five years, you may do so in accordance with the terms of your Contract.

We are sorry your association with our Company could not have been a longer one, and if we may assist you at any time in the future, please do not hesitate to call on us.

Sincerely,

W. G. Forrest
